

G2G2G Century - Granby, CT to Granby, MA to Granby, CT

Total Distance: 101.5 miles

Elevation Gain: Unknown

Degree of Difficulty Index: Data not available Terrain: Flat to rolling

Killer Hills: None

Geographical Region: North Central Connecticut

City/Town: Granby, Connecticut

Starting Location: Stop & Shop parking lot - 120 Salmon Brook Street (Route 10 & 202)
1.25 miles south of Granby Center

Ride Description: This 100-miler travels over mostly flat to rolling terrain on both sides of the Connecticut River in northern Connecticut and southern Massachusetts. This is a relatively easy Century ride. Route includes the Norwottuck Rail Trail (10 miles) between Northampton and Amherst, Massachusetts, but also has an option to bypass the trail using Bay Road since some sections of the rail trail have been cracked by tree roots and need to be repaved.

Facilities and Points of Interest:

Mile	Facilities - Points of Interest
0.0	Stop & Shop, food, snacks and bathrooms
17.6	Convenience Store after turn
23.9	Convenience Store on Left
29.9	Public Library on Left - Restrooms (if library open)
30.1	Easthampton Town Green & Gazebo
30.4	Convenience Store on Right
34.9	Fruit/Grocery Stores on Right
35.2	Dunkin Donuts on corner
36.4	Norwottuck Rail Trail parking lot - portable Restrooms here
38.2	Bike and Ice Cream shops on Rail Trail - Restrooms
42.4	Offroute Option - Take Rt. 116 North 1 mile to Amherst town green/shops
65.9	Rice Fruit Farm & Bakery; Restroom - left side door; Picnic tables available
84.2	Enfield Market on Left
88.1	CVS & Dunkin Donuts; off route 1 block Right on corner of Rt. 75 & Spring Street
94.0	New England Air Museum; Restrooms & tables/vending inside front door (before admission desk)
101.5	Stop & Shop, food, snacks and bathrooms

www.ctbikeroutes.org

Ride submitted by: Gary Scarcella (12/26/05)